HIRANMAYI S

Profile :

Hiranmayi's brush with art came at a young age. Her liking for colours and landscapes was nurtured and built upon by Mr.T.A.Nithyanandam, with whom she has been learning for the past 8+ years. In addition to painting, Hiranmayi learns vocal music and plays the veena. A student of class 12 in PSBB Millennium, Hiranmayi hopes to channel her love for art into a vocation by enrolling in Architecture or Design for her undergraduate study.

KRISHNAN D

Profile :

With a soft corner for portraits and perspective drawing, Krishnan bristles with excitement during his sessions with his mentor, Mr. T.A. Nithyanandam, which have been a constant fixture for the past 8+ years. A student of PSBB KK Nagar, Krishnan juggles his time with violin classes and inter-school basketball matches as well as regular Krav Maga (Israeli martial arts), making light of the fact that he is in class 12. Krishnan looks forward to dabbling in art beyond his school years as well.

SWETHA KONDURU

Profile :

"Every artist was first an amateur". I, Swetha Konduru started of from being an amateur when I was in 3rd grade. One can do a lot in the span of 8yrs. Under the guidance of Mr. T.A.Nithyanandam sir I have learnt a lot starting from oil pastels and sketching to canvas paintings, about nature and still life. I study at the PSBB Millennium School. My journey still has a long way to go and I believe that "Every artist is still an amateur".

SRINIJA KONDURU

Profile :

"Every child is an artist, we just need to discover it within us" and I Srinija , am very glad I discovered my inner artist under the guidance of Mr. T.A.Nithyanandam in my first grade.... It has been 8 yrs since I have been perusing this art form, and I have learnt and improved quite a lot. But I still have a long way to go to discover, and uncover forever.
